

PRESIDENT: Record the vote first.

CLERK: 21 ayes.

PRESIDENT: We are under Call. Please return to your desk and record your presence. Senator Bereuter.

SENATOR BEREUTER: I would like a record vote please.

PRESIDENT: Alright. Senator Savage moves that the Call be raised. Clear the board. Record your vote. Record.

CLERK: 22 ayes, 2 nays.

PRESIDENT: The Call is raised. Report the vote.

CLERK: Voting aye Senators Boughn....

SENATOR BOUGHN: I voted nay.

CLERK: Sounded like aye to me. Alright, Senator Boughn voting nay. You don't have it then. That's what it sounded like to me was aye.

PRESIDENT: Senator Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I move the House go under Call.

PRESIDENT: The question is shall the House go under Call. Record your vote. Record your vote.

CLERK: 22 ayes, 10 nays to go under Call.

PRESIDENT: The House is under Call. Report the vote, Mr. Clerk. Record your presence please. Senator Lewis. Alright, yes. Everybody return to your desk and report your presence. Commence to report the vote, Mr. Clerk. The vote is over. It is? Well I don't know what for though. Report the vote. We've already taken the vote and you started to report it. Senator Lewis.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Mr. Chairman, I rise to a point of order. The vote is not official until the Chair announces the final result, and any member on this floor may ask for a roll call vote anytime until that vote is official, and it is only official when you announce it. I ask for a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: The vote had been completed and the Clerk... Turn him off. The Clerk was in the process of reading the total, so the vote is completed. You're out of order, Senator. There is no point of privilege here. Take your seat, Senator. There is an appropriate way to get your remedy, now take your seat. I will recognize you.

SENATOR F. LEWIS: Thank you Mr. President, most distinguished President.

PRESIDENT: For what purpose?

SENATOR F. LEWIS: I rise to most respectfully challenge the ruling of the Chair.
